

Onalaska Apple Harvest Festival 2022

Dear Vendor,

Onalaska Alliance will be sponsoring the annual Apple Harvest Festival beginning Friday, September 30 to Sunday, October 2, 2022. We are inviting vendors to bring their wares and talents for display on Saturday, October 1, 2022 only. We are looking for artists/craftsmen interested in presenting educational demonstrations of their craft or art. We also would like to invite businesses and food vendors who would like to participate during our festival. The Harvest Food Court and Wine and Beer Tasting are a scrumptious array of local and regional foods ranging from local wines and cheeses to delicious culinary delights offered up by local chefs and farmers.

We reserve the right to limit numbers of competing vendors, so get your application in as soon as possible. All vendors must have all legally required licenses and certifications and must comply with all state, county, and local laws. If you are selling food, you can check with the Lewis County Health Dept. as to their requirements. Their telephone # is 360-740-1223. This is a family event, illicit drug paraphernalia or pro drug literature will not be allowed, nor will sexually explicate items, profanity, destructive language or items with violent content unsuitable for children. This year we are not accepting political or campaign booths.

Spaces will be approximately 10 x 10 and will be outdoors. You must supply the tables or other display items. You may reserve and pay for a double space. If you have a canopy or umbrella, it must be weighed down with at least 25 lbs. of weight on each leg. The festival has insurance but it does not cover you or your business. You may want to consult your insurance agent about additional coverage. Please fill out and sign the attached Terms of Participation along with the application, and return them to the address below along with your booth fee.
